

Julie started her career at Anheuser-Busch a few years back and since then has held marketing/advertising/development positions at some of the coolest places around. She is originally from St. Louis, but, she has lived in the South for the past 4 years. Life has taken her from North Carolina to Nashville back to North Carolina, Georgia, and Mississippi and finally to Shreveport. She is currently Major Gifts Officer at the Red Cross and has previously worked with the Ocean Springs, MS Chamber of Commerce, the Ohr-O'Keefe Museum of Art, the Shreveport Robinson Film Center and the Louisiana Prize Family, to name a few.

She is married to John and has two children, Jack and Norah, who both live in Los Angeles.

Julie is thrilled to be able to help launch Alumni Arts Presents!
