Chad attended the University of Arkansas where he majored in History with a minor in Drama. In Fayetteville he worked with several theatre companies, and he has directed and produced numerous stage productions. Wanting to work in the film industry, he made commercials with a couple of ad companies in Florida. He later found his passion and transitioned to Louisiana to begin feature length filmmaking and development. To date, he has worked on films including Iceman, The East, The Last Word, The Out and Outs and The Town that Dreaded Sundown. He is currently Co-Owner and Managing Member of Bayou Moon Entertainment, and will be a Producer/Instructor on the AAP staff.
